Senior Officials Workshop for CBRNE and Terrorism Incident Preparedness “Knowing the right questions to ask ...and getting the right answers”

August 24, 2005

12 Noon—5:00 PM (Lunch Provided)

This Course is offered during the 2005 Countering Bioterrorism Conference and followed by the Annual Utah Public Officials Conference in Park City.

Sponsored by

- Utah Commission on Volunteers/Utah Citizen Corps
- National Emergency Response and Rescue Training Center (NERRTC) at the Texas Engineering and Extension Service (TEEX), Texas A & M University System
- Western Community Policing Institute

Target Audience

- Mayors and Senior Elected Officials, Police and Fire Chiefs, Emergency Managers, and Bioterrorism Coordinators at the local and county level. Class size is limited to 40.

Course Description

This course provides a forum in which to discuss strategic and executive-level issues, and challenges related to CBRNE/terrorism preparedness, share proven strategies and practices, and enhance teamwork and coordination among senior officials responsible for emergency response to a CBRNE/terrorism incident. Additionally, participants exchange information regarding current changes and updates to relevant programs. Each participant will receive an executive handbook outlining executive-level issues and discussion topics using the preparedness, response to, and recovery from phases of the traditional emergency management framework.

Discussion topics/issues of the SOW for CBRNE and Terrorism Incident Preparedness include:

- Relevance and importance of CBRNE/terrorism incident preparedness
- Senior officials' roles in CBRNE/terrorism preparedness
- Leveraging homeland security resources
- Homeland Security Strategic Planning
- Incident response and recovery considerations
